News & Updates

Weekly Site Progress Update - Fantastic Completion News

We are very pleased to share some exciting news with all residents this week. All contract works within the compound at Lancaster Court are now fully complete, with just two final snagging items outstanding. which will be closed out on Monday, once the final materials arrive on site.

From The Starfish Team To You - It has been a genuine pleasure working with such lovely and welcoming residents throughout this programme at Lancaster Court.

Your patience, cooperation, and flexibility especially in attending the boiler safety appointments have been truly appreciated. Your support has played a key role in helping the team deliver the works safely and efficiently.

The team is now off site until Monday, when they will return briefly to complete the final two snagging items and carry out the last quality checks to ensure everything meets the required standards.

The welfare area will remain in place until further notice, ahead of the commencement of Phase Two of the Bedford remediation and cladding removal works. We will continue to keep you updated as soon as programme details for the next phase are confirmed.
